AAARCC X PURDUE LIBRARIES COLLABORATION

MAKING DIGITAL ZINES

WORKSHOP EVENT

In this workshop, attendees will learn what a zine is, the purpose of making a zine, and how to digitally create a zine for free using Canva and Heyzine. By creating a quick, 6-page zine, attendees will also explore open access resources for images that can be used in their zine and how they can use Creative Commons licensing to encourage others to share their zine. The workshop will be held in person and will be recorded for those that cannot attend. Refreshments will be provided.

New ensemble is looking for singers!
Mondays from 7 - 8 PM
Location: AAARCC (915 5th Street)

Do you like to sing? The Asian and Asian American Vocal Ensemble (A3VE) is looking for people who love to sing!

We are aiming to be a small ensemble that celebrates Asian and Asian American inspired music and composers. There will also be opportunities for you to put together your own solo, duet, or non-singing performances. In future semesters, we may have room for arrangement/composing opportunities. Our meetings take place weekly on Mondays from 7-8 pm at the Asian and Asian American Resource and Cultural Center (AAARCC).

A Week at the AAARCC

On Thursday, February 16, 2023, in collaboration with the Italian Program and the Purdue School of Languages and Cultures, the AAARCC hosted Dr. Gaoheng Zhang, Associate Professor of Italian Studies at the University of British Columbia for a virtual talk. His presentation was titled, Dogmeat, Chop Suey, and “Mozzarella Gialla”: Communicating Chinese Migrant Alimentary Stereotypes in Italian Popular Culture.

This past week, the AAARCC hosted a Lunch and Learn led by a graduate student and a staff member titled, Finding Support for LGBTQ+ Asians. This was a lunch and learn formatted to include the voices of the participants and create an open environment for discussions.

Dates:

- Feb 23, 2023
- Mar 02, 2023
- Mar 08, 2023

Location: YONG 268

Are you at crossroads in your career?

Are you interested in solving career cases using case interview techniques?

The CCO is offering an in-person Career Group Case Interview for international non-stem graduate students. Participants will learn to solve their career problems using management consulting skills. Eventually, through group case interviews, participants will learn techniques to solve their own career-related challenges.

This is a 3-part interactive and introspective workshop series, with each workshop lasting 60 minutes.

There is no fee for participation. We hope you will ATTEND ALL WORKSHOPS not only because they build upon each other but also because the small group structure works best when all participants are present and engaged!

Seats are limited!

Workshop dates and time:

4:00pm - 5:00pm (ET) Feb 23, 2023, Mar 02, 2023, Mar 08, 2023

Location: YONG 268

This is not simply a story detailing the violences of the state, racial capitalism, and the ongoing removal of Indigenous peoples from our lands. This is an abolitionist mo'olelo that centers genuine security and celebrates what we continue to build in the face and aftermath of all the colonial violences that have come for our lands, our bodies, and our dreams.

Spring 2023

Application deadline: Friday, February 24th, 2023

To apply: https://purdue.ca1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_9ALovPsbEcnC2km

As a result of the Equity Task Force, The Purdue University Diversity and Inclusion Student Advisory Committee has been established to be a broadly representative, deliberative group that discusses and considers matters concerning the campus community regarding diversity, equity, and inclusion. The committee's mission emphasizes the overall safety and well-being of the campus community—promoting an affirming campus where all students are resourced and prepared to thrive in our diverse, global environment. The Office of Diversity, Inclusion, and Belonging is currently seeking a limited number of Boilermakers to serve on the Diversity and Inclusion Student Advisory Committee for Spring 2023.

Member Responsibilities/Duties:

Attend monthly committee meetings

Advocating for, providing feedback from, and collaborating with diversity programs, cultural centers, student organizations, and other campus resources.

Increasing student access and awareness of the Office of Diversity, Inclusion, and Belonging.
Proposing, promoting, and constructively evaluating the effectiveness of current and potential university diversity initiatives.

Participating in and raising the visibility of Diversity, Inclusion, and Belonging resources, programming, and campus events.

To be considered for the committee, you must complete the following survey and upload the required documents.

Required Documents:

500-word (or less) response to the following essay prompt:

Tell us about yourself, highlighting relevant information such as your goals/vision/hopes while at Purdue, student organization participation, involvement with campus Cultural Centers, experience in community organizations and/or with affinity, cultural, multicultural organizations elsewhere.

2. Resume.

Once all applications have been reviewed, finalists will be contacted to schedule an interview.
