Week in Review

The AAARCC, Purdue Asian Alumni Network (PAAN), and Purdue for Life Foundation Alumni Affinity Networks partnered in an information session for PAAN Mentorship Program. Thank you, Almira (Sugar) Yllana for speaking with students about the mentorship program and for generously sharing Filipino adobo with us!

Thank you to Maria Eloisa (Lisa) Nuguid for your Lunch and Learn presentation "Emergence of Spatio-Visual Reasoning in Informal STEM" and thank you, College of Education, for co-sponsoring this week's Lunch and Learn event.

In her presentation, Lisa mentioned the connection of her research with Purdue Freedom School. If you are interested in getting involved with Purdue Freedom School or would like to get more information, please email Dr. Breanya Hogue at bhogue@purdue.edu.

The AAARCC's Graduate Assistant/Bilsland Fellow, Nguyen Le (Ph.D. Student, Curriculum and Instruction), presented his academic work as a poster presentation at the International Conference on Literacy, Culture, and Language Education (ICLCLE) at Purdue University.

The AAARCC participated in the Transfer Tracks Information Fair on Friday, October 25, 2024. Thank you, students and families, for stopping by our table and for taking a tour of the AAARCC in the afternoon.

Thank you, the Center for Advocacy, Response, and Education (CARE), for organizing and inviting the AAARCC to participate in the Domestic/Relationship Violence Honor Walk. Visit care.purdue.edu/prevention/awareness.html to learn more about Domestic/Intimate Partner Violence awareness and other CARE resources.

About Us

We are Asian American & Purdue researchers focused on improve the quality of life with Asian American Adolescents.

We use innovative approaches to help Asian American and Asian teens and their mental health through their own music.

We have over twenty years of experience in music, research, and Asian American identities and culture.

Your Life Your Sound

Music shapes our identity. Who we are can be discovered by listening to the music we love and the music attached to our memories.

Your teen years are about developing a strong sense of self, personality, connection to others, and individuality.

We are providing you an opportunity to learn more about yourself, and how to express yourself through music while earn $100 for your participation.

Purdue University researchers are looking for Asian American high school students to participate in a study about how music and life experiences growing up, being in high school, and future aspirations related to their music listening can affect teen health.

Your Music Sessions will be taught by a Board-Certified Music Therapist trained in teaching teens how to use music to express their identities.

Interviews will be conducting with Purdue Professors to learn more about you and your music.
