THE JMHC FACULTY NEXUS: A NETWORK FOR HONORS INNOVATION AT PURDUE

NExUS = Nurturing Exceptional Undergraduate Scholars

Experiential Entrepreneurship:
three-course sequence in collaboration with Daniels School of Business

H-Innovate is a course transformation initiative that creates new, sustainable, and scalable honors options in high-demand courses

- increase honors credit production,
- supplement existing coursework with value-added opportunities,
- produce H adaptations that improve course outcomes for all students,
- and support faculty development.

We partner with faculty across campus to further the work of faculty and promote undergraduate research

The Research Breakthrough Award offers $50-75K to Purdue faculty members prepared to conduct high-impact research or creative projects with a team of JMHC students.

- 2024 Breakthrough Award Recipients came from Agriculture, Health and Human Sciences, Honors College, and the Polytechnic Institute.
- Seed grants went to faculty from Engineering, Polytechnic Institute, and Veterinary Medicine

Our seven Research Generators bring together faculty from across campus to collaborate on interdisciplinary themes: sports, sound, community engagement, computing, printmaking, technology, and health.

All JMHC students conduct research with a faculty supervisor, contributing to ongoing research in every college. We train on research and teamwork skills, pair students with faculty researchers, and offer research grants and conference funding.
