Roger Blalock Scholarship Application

The Roger Blalock Scholarship is designed to raise the level of educational attainment at Purdue University by those of African American and Hispanic American decent. This is a $1,000 scholarship that is awarded in two installments throughout the school year. The Community Foundation of Greater Lafayette is administering two Roger Blalock scholarships in Tippecanoe County for the 2010 awards.

Roger Blalock

A native of Chicago, Roger Blalock graduated from Purdue University in 1969 with a bachelor's degree in Physical Education and a Communication minor. Roger was a two-year basketball letter winner during his time as a student at Purdue. Since graduation Roger has served in many capacities and now serves as a Senior Associate Athletics Director. Roger continues to work at Purdue inspiring young athletes and students of minority decent. Roger is very involved in the community and enjoys his time with his wife J.B. and son R.B. He is a pillar of the Lafayette community and an integral part of the success of Purdue Athletic programs. For these reasons Purdue Black Alumni Organization chooses to honor Roger Blalock with this scholarship.

Purdue Black Alumni Organization

The Purdue Black Alumni Organization is an affiliate of the Purdue Alumni Association. It was founded in recognition of the 10th anniversary of the Black Cultural Center and the first Purdue University Black Alumni Reunion in December 1980. As of October 31, there are over 1,100 PBAO members.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- Be a current student at Purdue University
- Be of African or Hispanic decent
- Live or attend school within the United States
- Have a 2.8 or better grade point average on a 4.0 scale (or other B equivalent)

NOTE TO INDIANA RESIDENTS: The Community Foundation of Greater Lafayette board members, officers, employees, and selection committee members will not be allowed to participate in any aspect of the selection process if they have relatives applying for the Roger Blalock Scholarship.

Criteria for Selection

Selection considerations include:

- demonstration of financial need
- recommendations
- essay
- demonstration of unique/unusual circumstances
- grade point average and difficulty of high school courses taken
- neatness and thoroughness of application

Deadline: 5PM, March 12, 2010

All materials must be in our office (not just postmarked) by the deadline. Incomplete or late applications will not be considered; no exceptions are made. Responsibility for ensuring the application is complete and received on time rests solely with the applicant.

Application Instructions

Read and follow all instructions carefully. Failure to follow instructions may eliminate your application from consideration.

- You must fill out your own application and write the essay in your own words. It's acceptable to ask for proofreading and other help but all work must be yours.
- Include all requested materials (and only the requested materials) and fill out the application completely and accurately. Incomplete or unsigned applications will not be considered.
- Use the application form and the space provided only. Do not include attachments except as requested.
- All pages of the application should be single-sided only. Do not use the back of pages to submit information; it will not be considered as part of your application unless our office has instructed you to put information on the back of a page.
- Please do not tape, staple, glue, or otherwise fasten any part of or anything to your application.
- Completed application should be submitted in a large envelope. Do not fold application.
- All materials, including references, must be received by the deadline or the application will not be considered. It is the applicant's responsibility to ensure that references have been received.
- Please keep a copy of the application. We cannot provide copies of any application materials, including references, once submitted.

You are strongly encouraged to read additional tips on the CFGL website. The application is also available on both the PBAO (www.pbao.org) and CFGL websites.

Application Submission

Use this checklist. Your complete application should include:

- application form (pages 4, 5, & 6)
- completed financial form (pages 7 & 8)
- college transcript (be sure to include previous fall semester grades, if available)
- your essay (limit of 500 words and font no smaller than 12)
- three letters of recommendation (no more than one page; each may be sent separately.
See pages 9, 10, & 11)

Notification of awards will be made in April 2010.

- Return this form along with your scholarship application no later than 5PM EST, March 5, 2010.

Answers to frequently asked questions

- "Parent income" means the income of the parent(s) with whom you live. If you live with a parent who has remarried, the step-parent's income should also be included.
- Financial information is requested from your 2008 tax returns. We do this because most people will not have their 2009 taxes finished by the scholarship deadline.
- If you feel you have special circumstances that significantly impact your finances that will not be reflected in this form, please contact Purdue Black Alumni Organization.
- Submitting a completed financial form is a requirement for this scholarship. All information will remain strictly confidential.
- If selected as a finalist, you may be asked to provide supporting documentation.
- The questions regarding financial circumstances are generally all that is needed to assist the committee in determining financial need; however, Purdue Black Alumni Organization and The Community Foundation of Greater Lafayette reserves the right to ask for clarifying information on a case-by-case basis.
- Our policy is to request only essential information on applications and to safeguard the confidentiality of such information. If you believe we are not in compliance with that policy, please contact our Program Director or CEO. If not satisfied, you may contact any member of the Board of Directors for The Community Foundation of Greater Lafayette The Community Foundation of Greater Lafayette.
