

Purdue Polytechnic Institute

One college across Indiana

Report to the Purdue University Board of Trustees

Friday, April 12, 2019

Purdue Polytechnic Anderson

Andy Schaffer

Associate Dean for Purdue Polytechnic Statewide

Associate Professor of Industrial Engineering Technology

Purdue Polytechnic Institute, Statewide

Providing access to a Purdue education, since 1967

- About 1,100 students are pursuing a Purdue degree at nine Statewide Locations
- 93% are Indiana residents
- Statewide students are “place bound”
- Few of these would attend Purdue if not for this service to the State
- Success stories: Red Gold employees Alex Huff and Travis Hood

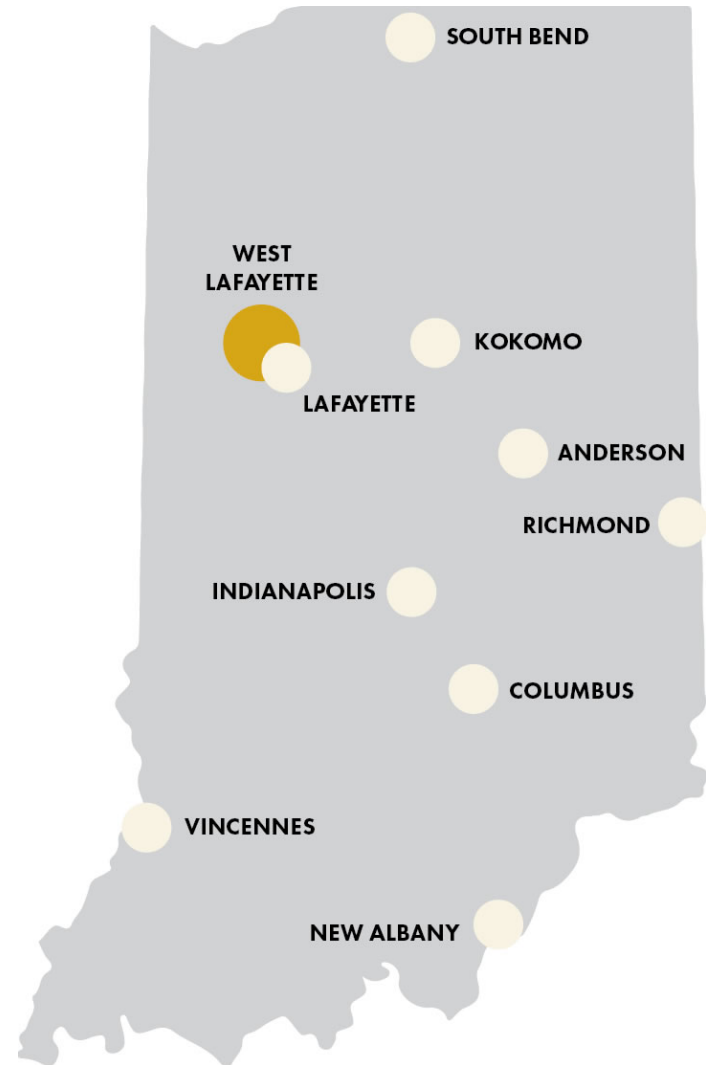

Travis Hood (Left) Alex Huff (Right) Purdue Polytechnic Anderson Graduates

Purdue Polytechnic Institute, Statewide

Polytechnic Statewide overview

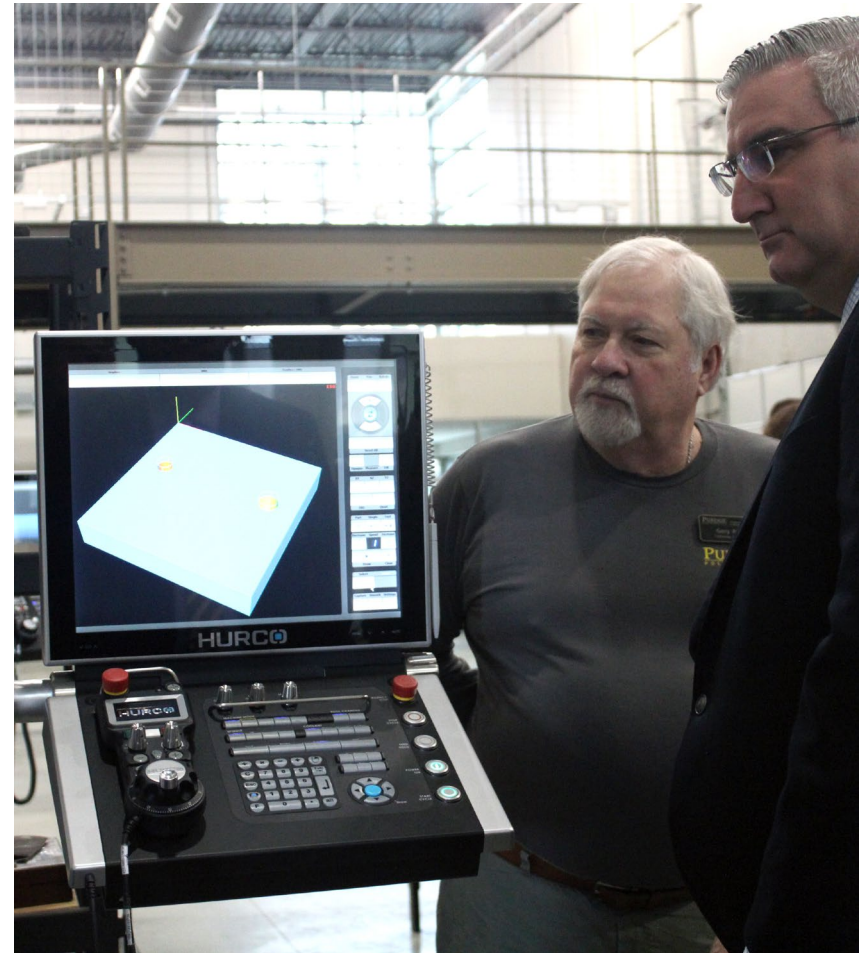

- 68% of students are 25 years old or younger (vs. 45% in 2008)
- 59% are full time (vs. 39% in 2008)
- Most are employed in the region after graduation, bolstering Indiana's "Brain Gain"
- A subset of Polytechnic degrees offered at each Location, with identical requirements
- Degree offerings are matched to regional industry need and local demand

Purdue Polytechnic Institute, Statewide

Partnership with local industry

- Unique Multidisciplinary Technology degree offers companies unprecedented customization options for workforce development: SIA and Red Gold
- Significant facilities upgrades in Anderson, Columbus, New Albany, and South Bend with strong industry and donor support
- Statewide is increasing non-credit training and employee development efforts
- Recent clients: Keihin, SIA, Magna Powertrain, Cummins, City of New Albany, Alexandria Community Schools

Purdue Polytechnic Institute, Statewide

Our next success stories...

- About 225 Statewide students will be presented their Purdue degree this May
- Company tuition reimbursement
- Affordability and access
- Excellent value and ROI
- Brain Gain: high placement, high wage, high demand STEM jobs within Indiana

Purdue Polytechnic Institute, Statewide

Thank you for your ongoing support!

Questions?

Andy Schaffer
aschaffe@purdue.edu

For links to all Polytechnic Locations:
<https://polytechnic.purdue.edu/locations>