Our quiet conditions continue into this weekend as the upper level ridge over the Midwest will keep our area clear. We will experience sunny conditions all day Friday with temperatures rising to the upper 60s. Gametime temperatures will fall through the 50s. Wind gusts will rise to around 11mph in the afternoon on Friday and decrease to around 5-10 mph at gametime.

Main Impacts:

- Clear conditions with temperatures falling through the 50s throughout the game.
- Wind gusts will be between 7 and 11 mph for the duration of the day on Friday.
