Synopsis:

An upper-level ridge will be over the eastern portion of the U.S., keeping our weather clear. Temperatures will rise from the middle 40s to the middle 50s during the day. Gametime temperatures will be in the middle 50s. Winds will be blowing from the southeast, with gusts between 10 and 15 mph during the day. Conditions will be partly cloudy, with no precipitation chances.

Main Impacts:

- Cool but warmer-than-normal temperatures with clear conditions
- Wind gusts between 10-15 mph throughout the day
