

ENTR 48100 Consulting for Emerging Enterprises
Registration Requirements

Course Description: ENTR 48100 Consulting for Emerging Enterprises offers a unique, hands-on learning experience that requires students to collaborate closely with real consulting clients each week. The businesses and nonprofit organizations partnering with entrepreneurship students are excited to receive well-researched, validated, and effectively communicated recommendations that can contribute to their growth and success.

Course Restriction: Grade of B or higher in previous ENTR courses.

To be eligible for registration, students must agree and adhere to the course requirements listed below (coordinated by the ENTR academic advisor).

Course Requirements:

- Attend each class
  - current scheduling is Tuesdays from 3:30-5:20PM.
- Schedule and attend meetings with team members.
- Schedule and attend meetings with the client during their normal business hours.
- Secure transportation to the client's business location (West Lafayette/Lafayette area).
- Communicate regularly with the client.
- Maintain a high degree of professionalism with the client.
- Dress professionally for the client meetings.
- Sign a non-disclosure agreement to ensure complete confidentiality of the client's sensitive business information.