STRATEGIES TO ATTRACT AND SUPPORT URM GRADUATE STUDENTS

Thursday, April 19, 2018
Stewart Center, Room 202
9:00 am – 4:30 pm

Lunch is included

Effective recruitment and mentoring strategies for under-represented minority (URM) graduate students are crucial for student success and for creating a more diverse and inclusive university. Workshop participants will learn about effective strategies from national experts, about the experiences of URM alumni, and about resources available to graduate students and mentors at Purdue.

This workshop is funded by the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation and co-sponsored by the Purdue University Graduate School.

For more information on the Sloan Foundation, please visit their website:
