ALOHA FRIDAYS

Cooking Demonstration

Celebrated on the Hawaiian Islands as an end to the work week, we're bringing some "Aloha" to Purdue by exploring and honoring Native Hawaiian cultures and traditions. Join us as we gather and "talk story" about the importance of traditional Hawaiian foods. Stay long enough for our cooking demonstration featuring some delicious Hawaiian dishes. Sponsored by NAECC in collaboration with the Polynesian Culture Club of Purdue

003 Fifth Street,
W. Lafayette, IN

Join us for a transformative cultural experience on our first NDN road trip to Indianapolis. We will start the afternoon with a visit to the Eiteljorg Museum where we will explore the rich Native American history and cultures. After dinner, we will walk to the Indianapolis Repertory Theatre for the theatrical performance, "And So We Walked: An Artist's Journey Along the Trail of Tears" featuring Cherokee actor and artist DeLanna Studi. This one-woman play probes the complexities and conflicts that the Cherokee Nation still wrestle with today, almost 200 years after their forced relocation." (IRT)

Registration required by Wednesday, October 9 <http://bit.ly/2Z3kWsr>

Sat, Oct 19

Bus will leave NAECC at Noon and return at 10 pm

The Old Leupp Boarding School (OLBS) was a Federal Indian Boarding School that operated on the southwest Navajo Reservation from 1909 to 1942. Through an analysis of Diné oral history and a critical review of historical records, Dr. Davina Two Bears (Diné) documented the history of the OLBS and how Diné children resisted and survived assimilation in the early 20th century. Two Bears received her Ph.D. in Anthropology from Indiana University-Bloomington, completed her residency as the "Charles Eastman Fellow" at Dartmouth College, and was selected as the 2019-2020 "Anne Ray Fellow" at the School for Advance Research in Santa Fe, New Mexico.
