NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH - NOVEMBER 2019

DAWNLAND

Film Documentary Screening and Discussion

Tues, Nov 5
6 - 7:30 pm • STEW 278

"My foster mother told me...she would save me from being Penobscot.' For most of the 20th century, government agents systemically forced Native American children from their homes and placed them with white families. As recently as the 1970s, one in four Native children nationwide were living in non-Native foster care, adoptive homes, or boarding schools. Many children experienced devastating emotional and physical harm by adults who tried to erase their cultural identity. Now, for the first time, they are being asked to share their stories..." Tugg Edu films. Awards: Woods Hole Jury Award 2018-Best Documentary; Buffalo International Film Festival Jury Award 2018-Best Documentary; and Tacoma Film Festival Audience Award 2018-Best Documentary. (Not Rated) 86 minutes.

ALOHA FRIDAYS

Native Hawaiian Plants and DIY Plant Party

Celebrated on the Hawaiian Islands as an end to the work week, we're bringing some "Aloha" to Purdue by exploring and honoring Native Hawaiian cultures and traditions. Join us as we gather and "talk story" about the cultural and spiritual connection between the Earth and Hawaiian plants. At the conclusion of the presentation, spend some time painting a clay pot and plant your succulent to take with you. Sponsored by NAECC in collaboration with the Polynesian Culture Club of Purdue.
