LUNCH & LEARN

Protection of Native American Cultural Resources
Through Repatriation

Tuesday, September 24 | Noon - 1:00 pm | NAECC

The Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA) was passed in 1990 to combat the theft of Indigenous religious practices, display of Native American human remains, and inappropriate sale of sacred objects yet it continues to be a major issue in Indian Country. Dorene Red Cloud (Oglala Lakota), Assistant Curator of Native American Arts at the Eiteljorg Museum, will discuss current repatriation efforts, provide basic knowledge of NAGPRA and other new legislation to support the return of cultural items, and share information on the protection of Indigenous cultural resources. Sponsored by NAECC in collaboration with Civic Engagement and Leadership Development

After dinner, we will walk to the Indianapolis Repertory Theatre for the theatrical performance, "And So We Walked: An Artist's Journey Along the Trail of Tears" featuring Cherokee actor and artist DeLanna Studi. "This one-woman play probes the complexities and conflicts that the Cherokee Nation still wrestle with today, almost 200 years after their forced relocation." (IRT)

“Diné Survival and Resistance in the Old Leupp Boarding School”

Dr. Davina Two Bears

The Old Leupp Boarding School (OLBS) was a Federal Indian Boarding School that operated on the southwest Navajo Reservation from 1909 to 1942. Through an analysis of Diné oral history and a critical review of historical records, Dr. Davina Two Bears (Diné) documented the history of the OLBS and how Diné children resisted and survived assimilation in the early 20th century. Two Bears received her Ph.D. in Anthropology from Indiana University-Bloomington, completed her residency as the “Charles Eastman Fellow” at Dartmouth College, and was selected as the 2019-2020 “Anne Ray Fellow” at the School for Advance Research in Santa Fe, New Mexico.
