ALOHA FRIDAYS

Film Documentary and Discussion on Mauna Kea

Friday, September 13 | 1-3 pm | NAECC

Celebrated on the Hawaiian Islands as an end to the work week, we're bringing some "Aloha" to Purdue by exploring and honoring Native Hawaiian cultures and traditions. Join us as we gather and "talk story" about the current issues taking place at Mauna Kea. Discussion will follow the film documentary, "Mauna Kea – Temple Under Siege." Sponsored by NAECC in collaboration with the Polynesian Culture Club of Purdue.

PAINTING WORKSHOP

Featuring NAECC Visiting Artist Jason Wesaw

Wednesday, September 18 | 3-5 pm | NAECC

Jason Wesaw (Pokagon Potawatomi) is a ceramic, fiber, and mixed media artist who has devoted his life to the study and preservation of Potawatomi culture. Join us for this oil pastel painting workshop as he shares his knowledge in blending the traditional ways and contemporary techniques. Wesaw is the featured artist for the fall 2019 Eiteljorg Museum's Artist-in-Residence program. Sponsored by NAECC in collaboration with the Eiteljorg Museum.

NAECC Employment Opportunities

The NAECC has two employment opportunities: Graduate Assistant will assist special projects related to recruitment and retention of Native American graduate and undergraduate students and planning and implementing culturally relevant programs. Student Staff Assistant will assist with outreach and recruitment events, perform general clerical support, and assist with special projects. Work-study eligible students will have priority consideration.

For more information, contact Felica Ahasteen-Bryant, NAECC Director, by email at felica@purdue.edu.
