NAECC Spring Artist-in-Residence

Special thanks to Tim Flanery for sharing his knowledge and skills with our Purdue community as part of his Spring Artist-in-Residence. Students, faculty, staff, and alumni enjoyed learning about Tlingit traditions and for many, this was their first time learning how to carve and basic woodworking techniques. Special thanks to Dr. Corrinne Lim-Kessler for inviting Tim to serve as a guest lecturer. Lastly, we appreciate the Eiteljorg Museum for hosting Tim at the Museum for a guest lecturer and art demonstration.
