

SPECIAL SERIES ON METHODS PEDAGOGY

- ▶ Are you a student who may find yourself teaching a methods or statistics course in the future?
- ▶ Do you teach methods or data analysis informally through one-on-one meetings with your students or peers?
- ▶ Are you an instructor teaching research methods or statistics?

This AMAP Special Series, supported by a Teaching Leadership Award from Purdue Teaching Academy, along with the Center for Instructional Excellence (CIE) will open a conversation across campus for instructors and mentors to share wins and failures, and gain new strategies for effectively teaching methods both in courses and in one-on-one mentoring or consulting arrangements.
