

April 2017

Meet a PPP Local Peacebuilder

Both lawyers by training, Hector Berrios and Zenayda Serranos have also tasked themselves with being peacebuilders, environmental activists, and leaders of change in the district of Cabañas in El Salvador. The husband-wife pair serve as the General Coordinator and the Project Coordinator respectively for MUFRAS-32, an organization dedicated to mitigating the potential for political violence through the conservation and improvement of environmental and social conditions in their district, as well as in El Salvador as a whole. Read More

Updates from the field

Peace Meetings in Tuobodom, Ghana

Read More

Formation of LYPAD in Lambussie, Ghana

Read More

2017 Elections in Liberia – Multiple Project Launch

Read More

PPP in the News

In February, the Diplomatic Courier published “The Need for Dialogue is Now,” an opinion piece co-authored by the PPP Director and PPP Consultant. Read The Piece Here

At Purdue

We are pleased to announce that in Spring 2017, undergraduate research assistant Erica Timmons, joined PPP. Read More

Dear Supporter,

Over the past five years, the PPP has successfully assisted and encouraged local citizens in West Africa and Central America to build peace in their communities. To continue to do this work and inspire more peace through local action in these regions, we welcome contributions from supporters like you, your colleagues and friends. Please support PPP in assisting local citizens make a difference in their communities. Click Here to Learn How to Contribute

PURDUE PEACE PROJECT

The mission of the Purdue Peace Project is to convene groups of local citizens in fragile states where clearly identified situations threaten to lead to political violence, and encourage and assist these citizens in their efforts to bring about peaceful solutions.

Beering Hall, Room 2114, 100 N. University Street West Lafayette, IN 47907, USA PPP Website

Follow us:

