

El Salvador Newsletter Update, April 2018

Planning Next Steps in El Salvador

In March 2018, Dr. Stacey Connaughton, Purdue Peace Project (PPP) Director, and Jessica Berns, PPP consultant, met with collaborators in El Salvador to plan future initiatives.

On the heels of a violence prevention initiative related to the March 2018 local level elections, PPP was invited to collaborate with multiple actors to help prevent violence during the 2019 presidential elections. We look forward to working with colleagues in Cabanas and San Salvador on this forthcoming initiative.

PPP Director Dr. Stacey Connaughton and PPP Consultant Jessica Berns meet with the Comisión Interinstitucional in San Isidro, El Salvador, in 2017. Members of the comisión have been working to prevent violence related to water management and the recent local elections in their community.

Learn more: To find out more about the PPP's work in El Salvador, visit <https://cla.purdue.edu/ppp/projects/elsalvador.html>