Overview

Winter Session 2024-2025

- History, 2nd Year of Campus Initiative, and Goal
 - Last year, we offered 10 undergraduate online courses with 562 students enrolled at the start of the term
 - 521 students passed their course with a 3.59 average course GPA
 - Goal: Offer students additional courses for continued academic excellence
- Reasons students shared for enrolling in a winter course:
 1. Lighten their spring course load
 2. Complete a prerequisite course
 3. Progress toward their academic goals

2023 BREAKDOWN BY YEAR IN SCHOOL/CLASSIFICATION

Overview

Winter Session 2024-2025

- Session Dates

- 4-week Winter Break this year: Saturday, Dec. 14, 2024 – Sunday, Jan. 12, 2025
 - Winter Recess/Campus is closed: December 23 through January 1
- Undergrad Online Courses: Monday, December 16, 2024 to Friday, January 3, 2025
 - We are excited to announce that online courses will be available to Purdue students studying in Indianapolis. However, students taking IUI classes are on a different academic calendar and are not eligible to enroll in a winter online course. All other students may enroll in one online winter course. We will monitor this and adjust student registration if necessary.

- Winter Class Types

- 3-week Undergraduate Asynchronous Online Courses, Study Abroad, and Study Away
 - Undergrad Research and Graduate and Professional classes
- Undergraduate students can only take one 3-credit course

- Using Winter Session to stay consistent

- No longer using Winter Flex or Break or January (J) Term
