

Undergraduate Research (UR) Program Matrix: Submission Form

Fill out this form for each distinctly different UR program, noting the following:

- Page 1 contains required fields.
- Page 2 contains optional fields that provide additional information to help recruit participants.
- This form is meant to identify research programs targeting undergraduate and professional students; do not use this form to identify research programs targeting graduate students.

Please tell us about the program:

We recommend a general program email, but you may use the email of the primary contact.

- Program name, website, and email
- Primary contact's preferred name and email

From the prior response, the program name, website, and program email will be available to students. May we publish the primary contact's name? The primary contact is the person we will follow-up with annually to update program information. An optional prompt (on page 2) includes a secondary contact.

- Yes, publish the primary contact's name
- No, do not publish the primary contact's name

In which of the following terms does this experience typically occur?

Check all that could occur.

- Fall
